

News Release

For immediate release
Adrienne Allen, Executive Director
823-8309, execdir@salinasymphony.org

LOCAL CELEBRITIES COMPETE FOR CHANCE TO CONDUCT SYMPHONY

A radio station employee, a choreographer and a restaurant owner are finalists for the Salina Symphony's "Celebrity Conductor" contest. Competing for a chance to conduct the Symphony are local celebrities Tony Dong, owner of Martinelli's Little Italy and 1 Eleven Ultra Lounge; Ken Jennison, public services director of Salina Media Group; and Peggy Simms, choreographer.

Community members are invited to donate money directly to their favorite contestant or mail to the Salina Symphony office, P.O. Box 792, Salina, KS 67402. Supporters may also call a donation in to the Symphony office at 785-823-8988. The deadline to donate is Friday, April 24.

The contestant who receives the most in donations will conduct the opening number at May 3rd Symphony Season Finale. Proceeds from the contest will benefit the Salina Symphony and Youth Symphony programs. For more information, please call the Symphony office at 823-8309.

###