

News Release

For immediate release
Adrienne Allen, Executive Director
823-8309, execdir@salinasymphony.org

SALINA YOUTH SYMPHONIES TO PERFORM APRIL 5

Make plans now to attend the Salina Youth Symphony Extravaganza, scheduled for 4 p.m. on Sunday, April 5, at the Stiefel Theatre. Three student orchestras featuring approximately 160 students from a six-county area will perform.

The Salina Youth Symphony features a full orchestra of 65 advanced string, wind, brass and percussion musicians under the under the direction of Ken Hakoda. The Junior Youth Symphony is also a full orchestra composed of 55 young musicians and will perform under the baton of Jared Rawlings. The newer Preparatory Orchestra, a beginning string program consisting of 40 young string players, will perform under the baton of Lindsay Ladman.

The Salina Youth Symphony offers area youth the opportunity to participate in professionally directed youth orchestras with peers from more than 20 different schools. The goal of the program is to enrich the musical education and experience of talented young musicians in the Salina area by providing opportunities to study and perform classical music repertoire.

It is recommended that tickets to the concert be purchased in advance at the Stiefel Theatre Box Office, by calling 785-827-1998 or online at www.ticketmaster.com. Single admission is $12 for adults and $8 for students.

NONONO