SALINA SYMPHONY TO PRESENT "FAMILY HOLIDAY CONCERT" DECEMBER 13

Dec. 10, 2009, SALINA, KAN.—Celebrate the season in style at the Salina Symphony's Family Holiday Concert on Sunday, December 13, at 4:00 p.m., at the Stiefel Theatre.

The Symphony will be joined by the Peggy Simms Dancers, the Salina Chorale and the Kansas Wesleyan University Chorale. For the first time, a children's vocal ensemble will also be part of the program. Creative lighting will highlight the musicians and dancers as they perform traditional holiday favorites along with a wide array of upbeat Christmas tunes.

"This year's concert is truly family-oriented," said Maestro Ken Hakoda. "The program will be upbeat and light, and will be enjoyed by people of all ages."

A visit from Santa himself will top off the festive afternoon.
