CHILD/YOUTH DANCERS WANTED FOR UPCOMING PRODUCTION OF “HANSEL & GRETEL”

Sept. 14, 2010, SALINA, KAN.— The Salina Symphony and Kansas Wesleyan University will hold dance auditions for its upcoming fairytale opera, Hansel & Gretel, to be performed Nov. 12 & 13 at the Stiefel Theatre.

Auditions will be held Sun., Sept. 26, at 6:30 p.m. in Pioneer Hall on the campus of Kansas Wesleyan University, 100 E. Claflin Ave. The audition is open to children/youth in grades 1-12 who have at least one year of dance experience. Dancers should arrive in proper dance attire and will be asked to display their ability to dance with a focus on lyrical movements. Dancers will not be asked to sing for the audition, but will be trained to sing for the performance.

This year’s opera will be produced under the artistic direction of Maestro Ken Hakoda, Barbara Marshall, Leslie Mangrum, Richard Esvang, Peggy Simms and Bill Weaver. For more information, contact Adrienne Allen at (785) 823-8309.
