SALINA SYMPHONY TO CLOSE SEASON WITH “BACH & THE BAROQUE”

April 13, 2010, SALINA, KAN.— The Salina Symphony will conclude its season at the Stiefel Theatre with a tribute to Bach and the Baroque on Sunday, May 2, at 4 p.m.

The concert will open with Bach’s Orchestral Suite No. 3 followed by a French horn concerto featuring Youth Symphony Concerto Competition winner Trisha Herbert, a high school junior from Abilene. The orchestra will also perform an original composition by Symphony violinist David Bernard-Stevens.

Following intermission, the Symphony will present Handel’s Dixit Dominus with the Salina Chorale and the Kansas Wesleyan University Philharmonic Choir. Featured soloists will be Leslie Mangum and Michelle Cardinal Dolan, both of Salina. The piece, a setting of Psalm 110, was completed by Handel in 1707 when he was just 22 years of age. The vivid images of the psalm text take the form of a sacred cantata set in eight movements.

Tickets may be purchased at the Stiefel Theatre Box Office, 151 S. Santa Fe, from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Friday, by calling 785-827-1998 or online at www.ticketmaster.com. The box office will open at noon on concert day. Single admission is $19 for adults and $12 for students.

The Salina Symphony is a regional orchestra dedicated to enriching lives through artistic music performance and education. For more information, contact Adrienne Allen at (785) 823-8309 or visit www.salinasymphony.org.
