SALINA YOUTH SYMPHONY PROGRAM ANNOUNCES JANUARY AUDITIONS

December 14, 2011, SALINA, KAN.— The Salina Youth Symphony Program offers area youth the opportunity to participate in professionally directed youth orchestras with peers from more than 30 different schools. Auditions for the spring semester will be held Thursday, January 12, beginning at 6 p.m. in the Choral Room (2nd floor) of Pioneer Hall on the campus of Kansas Wesleyan University. Auditions for each of the three orchestras in the program will be held. Students from elementary through high school are invited to audition. Students should come prepared to play a solo of their choice. They will also be asked to play scales and sight read.

The Youth Symphony features a full orchestra of advanced musicians under the under the direction of Ken Hakoda. The Junior Youth Symphony is a full intermediate orchestra performing under the baton of Henry Littich. The Preparatory Orchestra, a beginning string program, is conducted by Lindsay Modin. Youth Symphony Program members will perform April 15 at the Stiefel Theatre.
